11 Notice of Seaman's Suit

12 (28 U.S.C. § 1916)

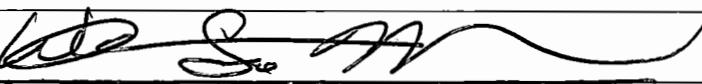

13

14 Petitioner moves this court to file an equitable

15 claim under seaman suit, hereby declaring his im-
16 munity and exemption from having to pay costs
17 and fees for the filing and prosecuting this suit.

18 Petitioner demands for trial by jury to try, con-
19 sider, and determine all issues, facts, damages, and 20 compensation. Petitioner does not assent or consent to 21 any order or judgment by a judge or court as such 22 lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter. I declare as 23 true under penalty for perjury that the foregoing is true.

11 CIVIL COMPLAINT AND EQUITABLE

12 SEAMAN SUIT

13

14 I, William S. McCowan the real party in interest

15 in my own behalf declare as follows:

16

17 This is a preliminary statement of the facts asserting

18 claims for which relief should be granted and tried by

19 a jury.

21 Plaintiff alleges and charges the defendants with

22 violating his unalienable rights to property, liberty,

23 and due process, as secured and protected by the

24 Bill of Rights under the Constitution for the United

25 States of America.

1 Said defendants are charged with also act-
2 ing under the color of law, color of authority,
3 and color of office while in the commission
4 of performing acts constituting the actual
5 cause and proximate injuries and damages
6 for which Plaintiff sustains.

7
8 On December 14, 2013, in Wake County,
9 North Carolina, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested
10 and seized by virtue of statutory bond warrants
11 for arrest contrary to and in violation of the 12 Amendments Four and Five to the United States
13 Constitution, while said warrants being executed
14 by the defendants.

15
16 The December 14, 2013, arrest was the results
17 of an informal or formal probable cause find-
18 ings of a grand jury of Plaintiff's peers supported
19 by oath or affirmation.

20
21 Plaintiff demands trial by jury and for the
22 jury to award plaintiff ten million dollars
23 ($10,000,000.00) in United States currency to be
24 put in trust of Plaintiff's public and private estate.

25

26

1 Plaintiff request this Court to issue a file -

2 docket number whereby Plaintiff may file
3 his formal independent claim and subsequent
4 pleadings and demands.
